THE INGWELL SAGA CHAPTER 49.

One of our highlights in 2018 was the Royal Wedding (pictured)

We celebrated along with the rest of our church by holding a Garden Party (for Christian Aid) – it was a fab day. Plus! - as Windsor is so near, Harry and Megan were able to drop by for the photo shoot. Our new Vicar- Catharine was married the following week so church celebrations continued for the whole month – it was great.

We also took some American friends with us to France, and shared with them some of the places we have come to know and love. After they left, we had a trip to Bordeaux for the annual wine festival and to celebrate Stuart's birthday. It's a lovely city (and lovely wine!) We spent a couple of days doing the sights on hired 'Boris' bikes and watching tall ships from across the world parading (under full sail) in the harbour.

We still journey to Leeds to visit mum and take her out for a pub lunch when she can make it. She cannot walk very far, and sadly the symptoms of dementia are now becoming apparent.

In May, we had a family get-together at Charlotte and Shaun's house when Dan came across from Sydney on a business trip. It was a rare opportunity to see him with our three granddaughters (Rosie, Lorna & Maria) together - we included Sam & Jo in the party by video.

We hope you have had a good year and we wish you all the very best for 2019.....and more especially at this time of celebration we send:

Happy Christmas Greetings with lots of Love from us both
